

HISTORY ALIVE!

At Johnston Farm Piqua, Ohio

July 9 & 10, 2016

Noon—5:00 P.M.

Daily Schedule

- Museum Open Noon—Five PM
- Special Presentation at museum highlighting A. R. Johnston: 1:30
- Canal Boat Rides 12:30, 2:30 & 4:00
- Johnston Home Tours 12:30, 2:30 & 3:30

Through encampments, displays & interpretations, Johnston Farm will highlight the early settlement era, events of the War of 1812, and the Mexican War with an emphasis on the life of Abraham Robinson Johnston. The day will include tours of the Johnston Home, the museum and rides on the canal boat. Bring the family for a day of fun and learning!

Take a ride on the General Harrison. The Johnston Farm & Indian Agency is proud to own and operate one of Ohio's working canal boats still drawn, as it was nearly two centuries ago, by a team of mules.

The 1st Regiment of Volunteers will bring "alive" military life at the time of the War of 1812. Visit camps from Early Settlement through the War of 1812 and view displays of weaponry and more from the Mexican War in the museum.

Our Sponsors: Greg & Alissa Blankenship, Buckeye Ford, Buckeye Insurance, Crayex Corp, Dan & Margaret French, Paul & Rosemary Gutmann, Holiday Inn Express—Troy, A.M. Leonard, McColloch-Baker Insurance, McCulloch Felger Fite & Gutmann LPA, Miami Valley Centre Mall, Midwest Maintenance, Craig & Nancy Mullenbrock, Thomas & Sandra Shoemaker, Unity National Bank and WPTW Radio. Please thank these sponsors for their generous support of the Johnston Farm and its programs.